MR. PENNYPACKER TALKS TO BOYS AT EVENING MEETING

On Tuesday evening, December first, Mr. Henry Pennypacker, Chairman of the Committee on Admissions at Harvard College, spoke to the students during the regular evening meeting. Mr. Pennypacker's visit to Governor Dummer Academy served to remind many of his hearers of the historic connection between the school and Harvard College, a connection which has existed since the will of Lieutenant Governor William Dummer made the "Overseers of Harvard College" responsible for the removal of the Master, should sickness, advanced years, or "a profligate wicked life" make it desirable.

Mr. Pennypacker had a very definite thought to give the boys, and he enlivened his talk by relating several humorous incidents which had occurred during the years he has filled his present office. He advised the boys to choose for themselves the college they would attend and not to leave such an important matter to chance. He told them that at college they should seek above all to learn how to live and how to get the most out of their lives.

Finally he said that every man was his own best judge; that every one else could be deceived by outward appearances, and only the man himself could know when he had done his best.

FOUR NEW NAMES APPEAR ON NOVEMBER HONOR ROLLS

In announcing the Honor Rolls for November, Mr. Osborn P. Nash, 2nd pointed out several interesting facts that appear from a study of the recent grades. No one has yet earned a general average of ninety, but several now have averages that approach that mark. Four boys appear on the Honor Roll for the first time this month, and one of them, George Tryon, has worked his way to the third position on the list.

First Honors

FINE SPEAKERS TO FEATURE THE ANNUAL CHRISTMAS DINNER

This evening the annual Christmas Dinner will be held in the school dining room. About seventy-five guests are expected to partake of the turkey dinner provided by Miss Brown and to enjoy the excellent speakers that Mr. Eames has procured.

Mr. Leon M. Little, Treasurer of the Board of Trustees, will be the toastmaster and will introduce Mr. William J. Bingham, Athletic Director of Harvard College, and Mr. Howard S. Stuckey of Phillips Exeter. Between the speeches the Academy Glee Club, led by Mr. Arthur Sager of the faculty, will sing a number of songs. The forty boys in the club have prepared a Bach Chorale, "Grant Us to Do with Zeal" for the occasion. Among other songs they will sing last year's favorite glee club selection, "Old Man Noah," and "Ready when the Great Day Comes."

After a short resume of the past football season, Coach William B. Jacob will award first team letters to nineteen members of his squad and will announce the election of Richard L. Segler of Falmouth Foreside, Maine, to the captaincy of the 1932 team. At this time each letter-man will also receive a gold football bearing his name and the position he played on the team during the past season.

Another feature of the dinner will be the presentation of two dozen silver spoons to Mr. and Mrs. Eames from the faculty. The presentation will be made by Mr. Brodhead.

CHRISTMAS CAROLS SUNG AT VESPER SERVICES

On December sixth the Vespers speaker was the Reverend Mr. W. C. Conrad of the First Congregational Church of Georgetown. His theme was that one should not fear what appear to be the big tasks in life but should arm himself with his own weapons and go forth to face them. He described David's meeting with Goliath, pointing out that David refused the armor that the king tried to thrust upon him and preferred to rely upon the simple weapon that he had mastered. David, he pointed out, was the only man in the host that did not fear to face the giant. His courage came from the belief that he was going forth "in the name of the Lord."

Before and after Mr. Conrad's talk the students sang several of the old Christmas anthems in a manner that won the commendation of the speaker.

DOCTOR INGHAM PLEADS
FOR NEIGHBORLINESS
IN VESPERS SPEECH

Dr. Charles S. Ingham, for twenty-three years Headmaster of the Academy, was the Vesper speaker on December 13. Dr. Ingham quoted the parable of the Good Samaritan, emphasizing the question which Christ answered by that parable and the advice he gave to the lawyer who had asked it.

A certain lawyer had tempted the Savior, asking "Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Christ told him among other things that he must "Love thy neighbor as thyself." When the lawyer still sought to trap him by asking "Who is my neighbor," Jesus answered him by the famous parable.

Dr. Ingham said that Christ's advice was more applicable now than ever, and that in the modern world, so much decreased in size by modern methods of communication and transportation, every man was, or should be, the neighbor of every other. He spoke of the depression which the world is now passing through and said that only by the practise of Christ's teachings could we win through it; for it is no longer possible for one nation to be prosperous while others are in want. Nor can one man, he said, sit down to a comfortable breakfast and feel that it is not his affair that other men are hungry, no matter how far away those others are. He said that if these ideas seemed startling, we must remember that ideas, like everything else, must be revised to meet new conditions.

When Dr. Ingham was introduced, the whole student body rose in honor of the man who had done so much for the Academy and served it so long and faithfully. After the service all the boys who had been students under Dr. Ingham were invited to the Mansion House to meet him.

BYFIELD PASTOR SPEAKS
ON CHALLENGE OF LIFE

On Sunday, November 15, the Reverend Mr. Henry H. McCartney, the new minister of the Byfield Parish Church, spoke at the vesper service. His topic was "The Challenge of Life." He told the boys that the life which lay ahead of them was a challenge to their courage and determination; that they could compel it to give them what they wished if they faced it courageously and did not allow its difficulties to daunt them. Although this was Mr. McCartney's first visit to the Academy, he came as a familiar friend; for most of the boys have heard him every Sunday in the new Byfield Parish Church.

HAMPTON QUARTET GIVES ENJOYABLE RECITAL OF PLANTATION MELODIES

On Friday, December 11, the Hampton Institute Quartet, composed of J. H. Wainwright, Bass; Jeremiah Thomas, Baritone; W. E. Creekmur, First Tenor; and J. A. Bailey, Second Tenor, presented a very excellent program of negro music to the Academy and some fifty guests who braved the bad weather to hear this famous group.

The program was divided into four sections, the last group of songs being mostly request numbers. Among the familiar pieces were Mighty Like a Rose, Swing Low, Sweet Chariot, Goin' Home, Heav'n, Wheels, and Water Boy. The selection that the students enjoyed most was Juba, the negro dance rhythm in which the singers kept time by slapping their hands against their legs.

The quartet was accompanied by a manager and by a recent graduate of the Institute who explained the method by which the Institute had made it possible for him and many others to earn their own education. The work year, as it is called, offers not only the opportunity of earning enough in one year to pay a student's living expenses for two years, but also valuable experience, preferably in the field the student wishes to enter after graduation. Many of the graduates of the Institute, he explained, are trained as teachers for other negro schools. Largely through the efforts of those men, the percentage of illiteracy among the negroes of the south has been materially decreased in the last few decades. Mr. Francis R. Belden, the manager, also used the intermission between two of the groups of songs to speak of the work of the Institute and the share it has played in solving the problem which arose from the freeing of four million negro slaves.

Mr. J. H. Wainwright, now in his forty-fifth year with the quartet, was perhaps the most interesting member of the group. A bronze bust of him has recently been cast by Mrs. N. H. Batchelder and is now in the possession of the Institute at Hampton, Virginia.

MOVING PICTURE DEPICTS
LIFE IN TROPICAL JUNGLE

During the evening after the Lawrence Academy football game, November 14, the students of the Academy were entertained by the moving picture, Chang. This picture was an exceedingly interesting portrayal of the difficulties of existence faced by natives in the jungles of Siam; their domesticated animals were killed, their crops were destroyed, their houses crushed to pulp, and their own lives in constant danger.

RAISING OF NEW BELL COMPLETES EQUIPMENT OF NEW BYFIELD CHURCH

On Saturday, December fifth, the student body participated in an impressive and unique service, the raising of the new bell at the Byfield Parish Church. The building itself had been dedicated during the summer, and a few weeks ago the interior was completed by the installation of panelled box pews. The bell-raising, therefore, marked the completion of an undertaking which has commanded the interest and energy of the whole parish since the fire which destroyed the old meeting-house in 1930.

The bell which was raised into position Saturday, an eight hundred and fifty pound one said to have the same tone as the one which hung in the meeting house from 1886 to 1925, was cast in 1856 and until recently hung in a New Hampshire church which has now been consolidated with a neighboring parish. From its elevated position it may be heard for several miles and should be of great aid in encouraging "that uniformity and punctuality in assembling in the House of God" said by Eben Parsons, the donor in 1817 of Byfield's first large bell, to be "so desirable to the friends of order and public worship."

The dedication ceremony was arranged by Miss Helen McGregor Noyes, an active worker in the campaign to complete the new meeting house. After a short prayer a large group of parishioners and students raised the bell to the belfry by means of a rope long enough to accommodate all that desired to have a hand in the ceremony. While the bell was being raised, Ralph Kiniry, a student at the Academy, played a hymn on the trumpet. In a short sermon while the carpenters were fixing the bell in position, the Reverend Mr. McCartney, the pastor, told the history of the old bell, what the people of the parish were trying to do, and why the new bell had been procured with the same tone as the old one. A few hymns were sung, Ralph Kiniry acting as accompanist; and then the bell was rung for the first time. Everyone was permitted to try it, and a book was circulated for the signatures of those who had participated in the ceremony. Many students signed the book and took advantage of the opportunity to ring the bell that will henceforth call most of them to worship.

UNANIMOUS SUPPORT GIVEN ANNUAL RED CROSS DRIVE

The annual Red Cross drive was again conducted by the Student Council and again received the whole-hearted support of the school, every member of the community having subscribed to the fund.

HARVARD INSTRUMENTAL CLUB CONCERT PLEASES STUDENTS AND GUESTS

The Harvard Instrumental Clubs came to Governor Dummer Academy on Saturday, December fifth, as one of the regular Saturday evening entertainments. About seventy-five guests from Newburyport and vicinity were present, and with the faculty and students they formed an audience which practically filled Lang Gymnasium, which had been decorated and equipped with a stage for the occasion.

The Instrumental Clubs are wholly the product of undergraduate interest at Harvard. Besides being composed of students, the clubs have no official connection with the university but are managed entirely by the students. Their organization was largely the work of Mr. Donald C. Gates, whom students will remember as the man who spoke at evening meeting on Armistice Day.

The seventy-five members who participated in the concert at Governor Dummer were divided into several groups, the mandolin club, the banjo club, the vocal unit, and the Gold Coast Orchestra. There were also a magician who performed with truly professional skill, and a short humorous sketch by a quartet entitled the "Pyorrhean" Sorority." The Gold Coast Orchestra seemed to be the most popular group with the students, altho the whole concert was received with enthusiasm by the students and by the guests.

After the concert the members of the clubs were entertained at receptions at the Mansion House and in the living room of Commons. One notable result of the concert was an increased interest in the Glee Club and Orchestra of the Academy.

The complete program follows:

1. American Patrol F. W. Meacham
Bull Frog Blues Tom Brown
Clicquot Harry F. Riser

NEW STUDENT COUNCIL HAS TWELVE MEMBERS

The organization of the Student Council of Governor Dummer Academy for 1931 - 32 has recently been completed. This is considered the most important undergraduate organization in school, conferring with the Headmaster on many points of school policy. The council is composed of twelve members this year. John C. Cushman, Jr., and Thomas N. Willins, Jr., because of their experience on the council last year, have been automatically placed on this year's council. Six of the members have been elected to represent their respective dormitories, and one to represent the day students. Three boys were picked from the student body at large. At the first meeting of the Student Council H. Shaw Carter was elected Chairman.

The members of the Council are as follows:

H. Shaw Carter	Peirce Hall
Richard L. Segler	Perkins Hall
William J. Mack	Moody House
Robert Donovan	Noyes House
John Dean Orr	Fleek House
Howard Walter Walker	Commons
Charles J. Caddoo	Day Student

Elwood Norton Chase	Perkins Hall
James Stuart Smith	Peirce Hall
Charles Edward Reiche	Peirce Hall
John C. Cushman, Jr.	Peirce Hall
Thomas N. Willins, Jr.	Perkins Hall

MANY STUDENTS AND GUESTS ATTEND CHRISTMAS DANCE

The fall term dance, held in Lang Gymnasium on Saturday, December 12, was an unusually successful one. The committee, composed of H. Shaw Carter, Chairman, Jacob Bond, Augustine Conant, Herbert C. Deuel, Albert Disbro, J. Albert Hessian, William J. Mack, Richard Segler, James S. Smith, Louis B. Sumner, and William B. Williamson, report about eighty-five dollars profit to be devoted to the purchase of gold footballs for this year's team.

The gymnasium was decorated in a new way for the dance. A border of evergreens at the top of the wooden panelling and two large cedar trees in front of the basketball backboards at each end of the gymnasium replaced the usual crepe paper decorations. The platform for the orchestra was built in the center of the north wall of the gymnasium, and opposite it a new staircase had been cut to allow the dancers to go up into the balcony to sit between dances. In the two north corners attractive boxes had been arranged for the same purpose. The orchestra was Roy Lamson's from Cambridge.

Dancing began at four o'clock in the afternoon and continued until six. An hour was then allowed for changing to evening clothes, and the boys and their guests then reassembled for dinner in the school dining room. Coffee was served by Mrs. Eames at the Mansion House and by Mrs. Kirk at Moody House. The evening dance began at eight o'clock and continued until midnight, with an intermission and refreshments at ten-thirty.

Mr. and Mrs. Eames, Miss Mary Cock, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Robert Kitchell of South Byfield, Mrs. Victoria Knipe Root of Ward Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kinsman of Newburyport, Dr. and Mrs. Harvey A. Kelly of Winthrop, Mrs. Augustine Conant of Brookline, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles P. Kendall of Pride's Crossing were in the reception line.

The overnight guests were entertained by Mrs. Osborn P. Nash, 2nd, in Perkins House. They were Miss Natalie Hadlock of Manchester, N. H., Miss Virginia LaFayette of Nahant, the Misses Priscilla Adams, Nancy Hickey, and Anne Martin of Worcester, Miss Marjorie Leach of Lynn, Miss Sally Fabins of Salem, Miss Barbara Bragg of Portland, Maine, Miss Mary Lou Whittaker of Winchester, Miss Mary Staples of Kingston, New York, Miss Marjorie King of Brookline, and the Misses Mary Brown, Virginia Wells, and Virginia Wyman of Beach Bluff.

The girls from Kendall Hall chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Kendall were the Misses Pat Burton, Helen Holmes, Marjorie Clark, Rosalie Donovan, Grace O'Brien, Helen Quinn, Dorothy Hawley, and Louise Le Wolff.

NINETEEN PLAYERS WILL RECEIVE FOOTBALL AWARDS

At the Christmas Dinner this evening nineteen members of the football squad will receive first team letters for their work during the successful season which recently closed with a twelve-to-nothing victory over Deerfield Academy. The awards made by the Student Council follow:

Captain Shaw Carter	Charles J. Caddoo
Elwood N. Chase, 2nd	Herbert C. Deuel, Jr.
G. Albert Disbro	Robert Donovan
William Henneberry	William J. Mack
Henry L. Petri	Charles E. Reiche
Stanley Sarnecki	Richard L. Segler
James S. Smith, Jr.	Justin M. Smith
Louis B. Sumner	Howard W. Walker
William Williamson	Roger W. Wood
Jacob W. Bond, Manager

VICTORY OVER DEERFIELD ENDS SUCCESSFUL SEASON

The Governor Dummer football team ended an unusually satisfactory season with a twelve to nothing victory over Deerfield Academy at Deerfield on Saturday, November 21. Supported by most of the student body and many alumni and friends of the school, the Governors made a determined effort to even the series which began last year when the Deerfield team earned a thirteen to seven victory.

The Governors took the lead in the opening period when Walker faded back as though to throw a pass and then followed the interference through the line of scrimmage and dashed forty yards for a touchdown. The Governors' other score was made in the second period, with Walker again carrying the ball. The Governors' quarter-back caught a punt on his own twenty-yard line and ran the length of the field. Chase and Deuel each took out two men during this play, and Segler, Donovan, and Disbro also did excellent work in protecting the ball-carrier.

The Deerfield team made but one serious threat to score. The Governors' pass defense was equal to the task of breaking up the Bogardus to Dunn passes that caused their downfall a year ago; but in the last period Deerfield intercepted on its own ten-yard line, and Walker had to put forth his best to overhaul the Deerfield back after a spectacular chase deep into the Governors' territory.

After the game the Governors and their supporters were entertained at a reception before starting the trip to South Byfield.

Of all the things we do in school, the friendships that we cultivate will give us the greatest reward in the long run. We all know the pleasures of meeting an old and trusted friend unexpectedly. We know the pain that is caused by saying good-bye, and all the hopes and wishes that go with those we love. How grateful we are when in trouble someone says that he is with us right or wrong! In all friendship there lies the most worthy and the most supreme happiness. Can we but recognize, appreciate, and return this friendship, we have found something so valuable that it can not be bought.

The boy who makes no friends loses one of the greatest pleasures that a school has to offer. After he has graduated, he has none of the pleasant memories, so dear to the rest of us, of friends who shared his ups and downs. He thinks of his life in the school, not as a great experience to be remembered now and then during his after life, but only as a step in his education. Let us not lead a narrow life like this, but rather let us make all the friends we can and spend as much of our time with them as we are able. A man can always find time for his friends if he will but look for it.

INFORMAL NOTES

Some very encouraging reports have been received of the success of last year's graduates in the different colleges which they are now attending. Lawrence W. Churchill was one of the two men in his section recommended for the freshman Latin prize at Amherst, and Weldon M. Ray led his class in chemistry at Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

On Wednesday, December ninth, the members of the football team were entertained by Coach and Mrs. Jacob. A number of games were played, and refreshments were served by Mrs. Jacob. The party was a fitting close to a season which had been marked by unusually fine feeling between players and coaches.

Thanks to the interest and courtesy of Mr. John C. Cushman of Montclair, New Jersey, the bronze tablet which has long been attached to one of the trees in front of the Mansion House has recently been cleaned and refinished. Put up in the days when the Academy was known by the shorter name, the tablet has been modernized by engraving the word "Governor" above the old title.

Two gifts to the Academy Library have recently been received. Mr. John J. Hessian has added H. G. Wells' The Work, Wealth, and Happiness of Mankind to his many earlier gifts. Marshall Sargent, a student, has given the two volume life of President Charles W. Eliot of Harvard by William Allen Neilson, President of Smith College.

The student body showed its appreciation of the work of the Headmaster and Mrs. Eames at the evening meeting last night when H. Shaw Carter, President of the Student Council, presented them with a handsome Radiola.

Some of the older boys were gratified to find Sidney Levin, an old classmate, among the members of the Harvard Instrumental Clubs when that organization recently gave a concert here.

On November 14 several of the students and Mr. Johnson attended a dance at Kendall Hall, a girls' school at Pride's Crossing. The boys brought back tales of a very pleasant time and were in favor of inviting the girls to attend some of our dances.

The fencing exhibit arranged for by Mr. Allen seems to have caused much interest in fencing. The size of Mr. Allen's fencing squad has materially increased until now it is the second largest athletic squad in school, being second only to the hockey squad.

BACCALAUREATE SPEAKER RETURNS FOR VESPERS TALK

The Reverend Mr. Emery Bradford of Ipswich, who delivered the Baccalaureate sermon last June, returned to the Academy on November 22 to speak at the Sunday vesper service. Mr. Bradford is an unusually fine speaker and well qualified to speak of the problems which confront boys.

He told the boys that "Life is a thing which tries the strength of one's soul" and that every one must accept the responsibility for his own success or failure. As an example of the way in which we seek to evade such responsibility he told of a member of a rifle team who usually turned in a high score but on one occasion earned a very low one and immediately began to question the quality of the ammunition supplied him.

Mr. Bradford also quoted the excuse Aaron offered Moses when the latter returned from Mount Sinai and found that Aaron had yielded to the people's wishes and had cast them a golden calf to worship. On that occasion Aaron weakly pled, "I cast the gold into the fire, and there came out this calf." But Moses was not deceived, and neither are those to whom modern Aarons offer similar excuses for their failures or misdeeds.

Mr. Bradford's concluding exhortation to the boys was to "stand on both feet, take life, and compel it."

MR. EAMES HAS MANY SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

During the fall term Mr. Edward W. Eames, the Headmaster, has spoken before several clubs in the vicinity of the school. In October he addressed the Newburyport Y. M. C. A. campaign workers at the campaign dinner on the subject, "The Place of the Y. M. C. A. in the Community."

On November first he spoke to the Men's Forum of Ipswich, an unusual group which has had a long and active career and includes men of all phases of the community life. His subject was "Why Bill Ran Away from School".

To the Amesbury Rotary Club on December 10 Mr. Eames described Governor Dummer Academy and the ideals and aims that make it different from other schools.

Mr. Eames' speaking engagements for the near future include the Haverhill Rotary Club on December 31, and the Senior Class of Amherst College at some time in January or February. To the latter group Mr. Eames will speak on "Teaching as a Profession," his address being one of a series designed to help the graduating class in the choice of professions.

RECTOR OF TRINITY CHURCH TO BE SPEAKER AT VESPERS

The Reverend Dr. Arthur Lee Kinsolving, Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, will be the Vespers speaker on Sunday, January 31. Dr. Kinsolving, one of the most noted churchmen of New England, is the son of the Reverend Dr. Arthur B. Kinsolving of Huntington, West Virginia. After being graduated from the University of Virginia, Dr. Kinsolving studied theology at the Episcopal Seminary of Alexandria, Virginia, and then at Oxford, England. In 1930 he became Rector of Trinity Church, Boston, and has since attracted considerable notice by his very able work there.

THE REVEREND MR. CARY WARNS AGAINST ADDING EVIL TO GOOD

The Reverend Mr. George E. Cary of Bradford was the Vespers speaker on November 29. Mr. Cary, who conducted the services in the Byfield Parish church during Old Home Week last summer, used as his text the mathematical theorem that only like things can be added. He warned that good actions and evil ones could not be added to make a satisfactory life, and that good qualities and bad ones would never sum up to fine character.

He advised reliance on God for guidance, concluding with Hendrick Hudson's words when the great explorer had been cast adrift by his mutinous seamen on the bay which now bears his name.

"So point her up, John King, nor'west by north.

We'll keep the honor of a certain aim,
Amid the peril of uncertain ways,
And sail ahead, and leave the rest to God."

ORCHESTRA AND GLEE CLUB HAVE EXCELLENT PROSPECTS

This year the Orchestra and Glee Club are again under the supervision of Mr. Arthur Sager. There will be a number of concerts given in Newburyport and neighboring villages and at the school by the combined clubs. There are also plans to broadcast from Radio Station WCSH in Portland, and there is the possibility of the Glee Club's going to New York for the New York Private School Contest.

Fifty-three candidates, showing fine spirit and willingness, reported for the Glee Club. Forty-two of these will stay in the club until after Christmas, when a number of others will be dropped. The number of candidates is exceptional since it constitutes nearly half of the school.

The outlook for the orchestra is also promising. The instrumentation is very good. There are four violins, three trumpets, three clarinets, one flute, one cello, one bass viol, two saxophones, drums, and piano. A teacher is coming from Boston to help the three violinists and the cellist and one from Newburyport to give lessons on the clarinet and flute. Mr. Sager is encouraging the younger boys in the school to take up some instrument in preparation for future years.

FENCING EXHIBITION AROUSES ENTHUSIASM

In order to arouse interest in the sport, Mr. Dana Allen, who will coach the new fencing team, arranged an exhibition for the evening of Friday, December fourth. Mr. Allen, who was himself a member of the Harvard team and placed third in the intercollegiate matches of 1930, was able to bring to Governor Dummer several of the outstanding fencers of New England. Among them were Rene Perry, the coach of the Harvard fencing team; Edward and Everett Lane, national champions in 1929 and now members of the Boston Athletic Club; and Mr. James Parker, also of the B. A. A. Captain Robert Lawson of the Harvard team and Gilbert Kerlin, Thomas Moran, and John Hurd, three of his teammates, also participated.

The first bout was a foils bout between Rene Perry and Gilbert Kerlin, starting with the grand salute. Mr. Perry took the bout, 5 - 1. Then Thomas Moran won an epee bout from Captain Parker.

The third event was a foils bout played by the Lane brothers. After a very close match Everett Lane touched his brother for a 5 - 4 victory. In another foils bout Kerlin defeated Hurd, 5 - 3. The fifth match, a very spectacular sabre bout between Captain Lawson and Everett Lane, held everyone's interest with its flashing and clashing of sabres. Lawson took the match, 5 - 3.

Mr. Everett Lane then used a short recess to give a brief account of fencing, explaining the types of instruments used and something of the rules governing the different bouts. Four bouts followed; a foils bout between Mr. Perry and Edward Lane, two epee bouts between Moran and Hurd, and Mr. Allen and Mr. Everett Lane, and a sabre bout between Mr. Perry and Captain Lawson. While Mr. Allen did not win, he made Mr. Lane exert himself to the utmost and gave an idea of what he could do when in practise.

TEN HOME GAMES ON BASKETBALL SCHEDULE FOR THE 1932 SEASON

Mr. Francis J. Reagan, coach of basketball, has arranged a thirteen game schedule for the 1932 team. Ten of the games will be played in the Lang Gymnasium, the only out of town games being with Phillips Andover, Lawrence Academy, and Milton Academy. Among the new teams on this year's schedule are the Wassookeag School and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology freshmen.

When regular practise begins after the Christmas recess, Mr. Reagan will have but two members of last year's squad to form a nucleus of his new team. John C. Cushman, Jr., was the regular center last year, and Herbert C. Deuel, Jr., was a guard. In addition to these players Mr. Reagan will have several experienced players from the second team and also several new boys.

The complete schedule follows:

Wed., Jan. 20: Melrose High School, here.
Sat., Jan. 23: General Electric, here.
Wed., Jan. 27: Lawrence Academy, here.
Sat., Jan. 30: Phillips Andover, away.
Wed., Feb. 3: Lawrence Academy, away.
Sat., Feb. 6: Rindge Technical, here.
Fri., Feb. 12: Bridgton Academy, here.
Wed., Feb. 17: Milton Academy, away.
Sat., Feb. 20: Reading Alumni, pending.
Wed., Feb. 24: Mass. Nautical School, here.
Sat., Feb. 27: Wassookeag School, here.
Wed., Mar. 2: Amesbury High School, here.
Sat., Mar. 5: M. I. T. Freshmen, here.

JUNIORS LOSE FINAL GAME TO EXETER TEAM

The Junior team closed its season Wednesday, November 18, with a game against a heavier and superior Exeter Junior team. The Juniors were able to make little gain against their opponents except with Jose Beola's rushes through center. Their passes were blocked and their end runs only went across the field. On the other hand Exeter had a number of trick plays, an unbalanced line with criss-crosses, passes, and laterals so confusing that the Juniors never knew what to expect. Morrill's fine tackling made him the outstanding man on the field.

Coach Allen, however, refused to be disappointed with the final score of 33 - 0 against him. He said he was very much pleased with the spirit of his team and the way they fought all through the game. He hopes to play Exeter again next year with more evenly matched teams.

A WELL EXECUTED PLAY IN THE LAWRENCE GAME

GOVERNORS LOSE LAST HOME GAME TO LAWRENCE

On November 14 the Governors were beaten, six to nothing, by the powerful Lawrence Academy team. Neither team had been beaten or tied before, and both were on edge to preserve their records. During the opening period the visitors had decidedly the edge in every department of the game except punting. Captain Shaw Carter and Howard Walker shared the punting assignment and between them averaged a twelve to fifteen yard gain for the Governors on every exchange. Several times in the early part of the game one or the other of them contributed really spectacular punts that were needed to off-set the gains made by the Lawrence backs through the Governors' lighter line.

Before the first half ended, the Governors solved the Lawrence offense; and until nearly the last minute kept the ball in the visitors' territory. The unusual pass defense designed by Coach Jacob for the occasion worked perfectly, Lawrence gaining practically nothing by that method. The Governors completed several passes, one of them a long one to Donovan, who got away for a considerable gain before being pulled down on the twenty-five yard line. This was the Governors' greatest opportunity to score, but they were unable to take advantage of it.

Toward the end of the last period the Lawrence team began to hurl long and desperate passes. After having several times lost the ball on downs, two successful passes brought them into scoring position; but on the next play they were thrown for a twenty-yard loss. With the ball on the thirty-five yard line and less than a minute to play, it seemed that the game must end in a scoreless tie; but another long pass was completed after being partially blocked, and the receiver only had to step across the line to score the only points of the game. The try for point was unsuccessful, and the two teams lined up again for the kick-off. The Governors received and ran the ball back nearly to midfield. Before it could be put in play again, the time-keeper's whistle ended the Governors' chances of making up the lost points.

MANY AWARDS MADE AT THE THANKSGIVING RALLY

The evening meeting was postponed until nine o'clock on the day before the Thanksgiving recess, and at that time a rally was held and football letters were awarded to the members of the second team and the junior team. The results of the fall golf tournament were also announced, and Mr. Edward Underwood awarded the medals and the cups which he had presented. The championship cup went to John C. Cushman, Jr., and his name will be engraved on the permanent cup which Mr. Underwood has presented to the school. Louis Wyman, the runner-up, also received a handsome cup; and William Woodbury and Roland Toppan, Jr., the champion and runner-up in the "Beaten Eight" tournament, were awarded medals. Mr. Underwood made a very entertaining speech as he awarded the prizes.

Mr. Brodhead made a short comment on each player as he presented second team letters to William A. Buechner, Harry C. Churchill, Walter R. Comfort, Jr., Dana C. Douglass, Jr., Gilmore L. Farr, Arthur Giovannangeli, Martin C. Gowdey, Harvey A. Kelly, Jr., Ralph W. Kiniry, Jr., Thomas B. Lyne, Seth R. Martin, S. Forbush McGarry, Jr., Zigmund Rogers, Nathaniel Sanders, John Snyder, Colin F. Soule, Terry Staples, and managers Marshall Sargent and Thomas N. Willins, Jr.

Mr. Allen then awarded letters to the following members of the junior squad: William C. Bauer, Jose Perez Beola, George B. Clapp, James T. Connolly, Jr., Spencer Curry, Mario Fernandez, Vasmer L. Flint, J. Albert Hessian, R. Drew King, Manager Parker Kitchell, Donald Lawrence, Reginald A. Morrill, Arthur D. Ordway, F. Perry Reynolds, and George H. Tryon.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the living room of Commons by Miss Brown and ladies of the faculty.

CUSHMAN WINS FALL GOLF TOURNAMENT BY TAKING EXTRA HOLE

This fall a lot more interest was shown in golf than last year. There were more prizes, and the tournament under the supervision of Mr. Chandler W. Johnson was very successful. The boys handed in their score cards for the first three weeks of school and were then awarded handicaps. Wyman was placed at scratch, and all the other handicaps were based on his. The four seeded players were Louis Wyman, Chester Ingraham, John C. Cushman, and Calvin Eldred in that order. On the whole the golf played in the tournament was far superior to that of last year. Wyman only had one hard match to win his way into the finals, defeating Irving Whiting 2 up. However, Cushman received no real opposition until the finals, when he was three down and there were only four holes left to play. He scored a birdie on the eighteenth hole to halve the match, and then won the extra hole to win the match and the trophy presented by Mr. Edward Shepherd Underwood. The Beaten Eight was won by William Woodbury, who defeated Toppan 2 up. The results of the tournament were as follows:

Preliminary Round

Burke defeated Black three up and two to play; Whiting defeated Poisson 6 and 5; Woodbury defeated Ropes 7 and 5; Halas defeated Robbins 4 and 3; Barndollar defeated Patton 9 and 7; Underwood defeated Rines 6 and 5; Belknap defeated Krippendorf 8 and 6; Tatman defeated Weber 4 and 2.

First Round

Wyman defeated Rayher 8 and 6; Whiting defeated Burke 8 and 7; Halas defeated Woodbury 1 up (nineteen holes); Eldred defeated Shepherd 8 and 6; Cushman defeated Johnson 9 and 7; Barndollar defeated Underwood 3 and 1; Belknap defeated Tatman 8 and 6; Ingraham defeated Toppan 3 and 2.

Second Round

Wyman defeated Whiting 2 up; Eldred defeated Halas 8 and 6; Cushman defeated Barndollar 5 and 3; Ingraham defeated Belknap 2 up.

Semifinals

Wyman defeated Eldred 5 and 4; Cushman defeated Ingraham 8 and 7.

Finals

Cushman defeated Wyman 1 up (nineteen holes).

FOUR NEW TEAMS APPEAR ON 1932 HOCKEY SCHEDULE

The 1932 hockey schedule arranged by Mr. Eames includes nine games, four at South Byfield and five away. The new teams on the schedule are Deerfield and Milton Academies, Belmont Hill, and the Rivers School. Games were scheduled last year with Deerfield and Belmont Hill but could not be played because of lack of ice.

Of last year's squad Mr. Eames will have Captain Elwood Chase, Howard Walker, Karl Wolff, Jim Smith, Calvin Eldred, William Gove, John W. Hosmer, and Gilmore Farr. Four of the most valuable members of the squad were lost by graduation, Joseph Langmaid, William Davis, Carl Buechner, and John Adden, but Mr. Eames will have several new men as well as the eight players left from last year, and another good team may be expected.

The schedule follows:

Sat., Jan. 16: Milton Academy, away.
Wed., Jan. 20: Amesbury High, here.
Sat., Jan. 23: Deerfield Academy, away.
Wed., Jan. 27: Brooks School, here.
Sat., Jan. 30: Tabor Academy, here.
Wed., Feb. 3: Phillips Andover, away.
Wed., Feb. 10: Brooks School, away.
Sat., Feb. 13: Belmont Hill, here.
Fri., Feb. 19: Rivers School, away.
